

Great Expectations and Dickens' London

Quality of Information	Information clearly relates to the main topic. It includes several supporting details and/or examples.	Information clearly relates to the main topic. It provides 1-2 supporting details and/or examples.	Information clearly relates to the main topic. No details and/or examples are given.	Information has little or nothing to do with the main topic.
Connection to Book	All connections to the text are clear and well-reasoned.	Most connections to the text are clear and well-reasoned.	Some connections to the text are clear and well-reasoned.	No connections to the text are clear and well-reasoned.
Sources	At least eight sources. Four sources must be print.	n/a	n/a	Fewer than eight sources, or fewer than four print sources.
Works Cited Page	There are no mistakes in formatting.	There are one or two mistakes in formatting.	There are three or four mistakes in formatting.	There are five or more mistakes in formatting.
In-text references	There are no mistakes in formatting.	There are one or two mistakes in formatting.	There are three or four mistakes in formatting.	There are five or more mistakes in formatting.
Sentence Types	There is one example of each of the four types of sentences in the paper.	n/a	n/a	There is not one example of each of the four types of sentences in the paper.
Spelling and Grammar	There are no errors that affect the readability of the paper.	One to two errors that affect the readability of the paper.	Three or four errors that affect the readability of the paper.	Five or more errors that affect the readability of the paper.	