

Antigone

	4	3	2	1
Principles and Examples	Uses 4 principles to explain 4 clear examples, or uses 2 principles to explain 2 clear examples each (4 total).	Three total clear examples as opposed to four.	Two total clear examples as opposed to four.	No examples are clear, or uses only one clear example.
Depth of Analysis	All examples are analyzed and not simply summarized; additional, outside examples used for clarification.	The majority of examples are analyzed and not simply summarized; or few outside examples are used.	The majority of examples are merely summarized.	All examples summarized; no analysis whatsoever.
Content Gaps	No content gaps. Author anticipates potential reader questions and deals with them in the essay.	One or two content gaps. Author anticipates most potential reader questions and deals with them in the essay.	Three or four content gaps. Author anticipates some of a potential reader's questions and deals with them in the essay.	Many content gaps. Reader finishes the essay not really having understood much of anything.
Sentences Structure		No run-on sentences. There are a variety of sentence lengths.	No run-on sentences. There is little variety of sentence lengths.	There is at least one run-on sentence. There is no variety in sentence lengths.	