

Monster Verdict Graphic Organizer

Scene	Guilty	Innocent
Opening Scenes (1-20)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>On trial</li> <li>O'Brian has doubts about his innocence (13)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Claims innocence</li> <li>Flashback with teacher: film club=decent kid (19)</li> </ul>
Petrocelli's Statement (20-23)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Doodles "monster"—indicates guilty feelings (24)</li> </ul>
O'Brien's and Briggs' Statements (25-28)		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>"Criminals" will be testifying (27, 8)</li> </ul>
Jose Delgado's Testimony (28-32)
Zinzi's Testimony (32-41)
Bolden's Testimony (47-57)
Steve on the Street (50, 51)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Hanging out with "thugs" talking about who to rob (50)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Doesn't seem to know the participants that well. They seem to be strangers.</li> </ul>
Diary Entry (59-64)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Monster tattoo: (59)—starts feeling guilty; accepting "monster"</li> </ul>
Cruz's Testimony (80-88) (100-109)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Steve has reputation—hangs with bad dudes (81)</li> <li>Oswaldo participated: says Steve did</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Doesn't actually fight</li> </ul>
Steve's Journal (81-98)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Wanted to be like King (96): trying to impress King</li> </ul>
Steve's Thoughts in Jail (137-159)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Steve thinks O'Brien thinks he's guilty</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Terrified: not a thug (137-ish)</li> </ul>
Mrs. Henry's Testimony (161-172)
Bobo Evan's Testimony (172-199)
Briggs's Closing Argument (238-243)
Briggs's Closing Argument (238-243)
O'Brien's Closing Argument (244-254)
Petrocelli's Closing Argument (254-262)

Scene	Guilty	Innocent
Verdict Delivered (262-277)
Final Journal Entry (279-281)		