

- Contradict what we know about char.
 - telling secrets
 - body language
 - unrealistic
 - how speaks
 - contradict known facts
- lying
- mentally ill

Narrator / Pt of View

First "I"	Third ^{he/}
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- narr. in story → has own interests- limits -<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Other chars' motivation, feelings- 1 side of story- limited knowl.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- more trustworthy?- manipulate?

- contradict what I already knew about individual
- body language / face
- laughing / pausing → How
- contradicts prior knowledge
- has lied before
- details → changes in retelling
- not realistic → life
 - mental illness

First "I"	Third ^{way}
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- char. in story- vested interest in presenting self- limited pt of view- colors - opinion fact biased	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- distance from story- no personal interest