

When I'm depressed and hate myself,

When in disgrace with fortune and men's eyes

1 All alone beweeep my outcast state,

2 And trouble deaf heaven with my bootless cries,

3 And look upon myself, and curse my fate,

4 (Wishing me like to one more rich in hope,

Featured like him, like him with friends possessed,

Desiring this man's art, and that man's scope,

With what I most enjoy contented least;

Yet in these thoughts my self almost despising,

Haply I think on thee and then my state

(Like to the lark at break of day arising

From sullen earth, sings hymns at heaven's gate;

(For thy sweet love remembered such wealth brings

That then I scorn to change my state with kings.)
