

(Under certain circumstances) (ger) (standing) (in the middle) (of the street) (to do) (inf)

The lady (part) (standing) (in the middle) (of the street) (appears) (to be ill) (inf)

(inf) (To be ill) is probably the worst thing (for a hedgehog)

sister Rosie sometimes feels (part) (flattened) (by the worries) (of the world)

She's also a hedgehog, so that explains a lot (of her troubles)

(Running water) can be very (calming) and help one (to fall <sup>inf</sup> asleep.)

Running hedgehogs usually have the opposite effect.

(In Pamplona) during the Feast (of San Fermin), bulls run wild
(in the street) in Greenville (in the summer), hedgehogs run wild
(on the major highways) through town.)

That (in fact) was the original inspriation (for Sonic the Hedgehog.)

The people (of Pamplona) are jealous (about these hedgehogs) and,
(plotting cultural coup,) hope (to replace the (running (of the bulls
(with the (running (of the hedgehogs.)))

Squirrels will do (in a pinch.)
