

-
4. my sister was born on Valentine's Day
 5. which everyone enjoyed
 6. the flood destroyed many crops
 7. the singer wore a silk scarf
 8. when the lights were flickering
 9. since the first time we talked
 10. that the lion's cage was empty

In 1397, trading ships arrived at the Mediterranean island of Sicily from Caffa, which was a port city on the Black Sea.

When the sailors went ashore, many of them carried a strange illness that baffled ship doctors.

No medicine could save the stricken sailors, who died quickly and painfully as the disease ravaged their bodies.

