

Example Schaffer Body Paragraph

School lunch at Beck can be gross. For example, I got a piece of cold, slimy pizza the other day. The cheese was falling off the pizza. I absolutely didn't want to eat it. Another reason lunch is gross is the milk, which is sometimes lumpy and chunky. When you open the milk, it stinks to high heaven. Sometimes, it even looks like butter! Finally, the chili can be so greasy that you see the grease floating. There's no way to eat it like that. You have to strain it. From these examples, it's clear Beck's school lunch can be nasty.

Examining the Paragraph

1. Label all the sentences (TS, CD, etc)
2. What is the claim of the TS?
3. What pieces of evidence do the CDs supply?
4. How many chunks does this paragraph have?
5. How does the commentary for each chunk help support the TS?
